Local Car Scheme Needs Volunteer Drivers

Did you know? West Lancashire Dial a Ride runs a volunteer Community Car scheme in addition to its familiar red and white accessible minibuses. The Community Car scheme works by local car owners volunteering their time to drive elderly or disabled residents to appointments or to the shops. Volunteer car schemes are a more efficient alternative to minibuses in rural areas and have proved very popular with residents in West Lancashire where they have been piloting the scheme over the last year.

They need more car drivers. Please pass this on to anyone who would could spare some time. Volunteers can choose how much time they are willing to offer and are paid a generous rate for the mileage they cover on the scheme. No special driving licence or insurance is required. Applicants must undergo a driving assessment and security check. If you would like to know more please ring Dial a Ride on 01704 893373.

Just Act website

The Just Act website provides practical advice for anyone wanting to make a difference and improve their community. As well as providing basic advice to people wanting to get involved in community action or set up a group it has a useful knowledge bank. This contains a number of relevant documents and resources. There is also an online Forum.

It's All in the Database!

Social enterprise free database was established in 2011, with the aim to reduce the technology gap between those with large resources, and those without. The freedatabase website hosts the UK's largest resource of free database systems, but there are also database build, data migration and training services available. See website:

Budget 2015

NCVO's charity finance expert has summarised the main points of interest:

Five things charities need to know about Budget 2015

Audit threshold

The audit threshold for charities is being doubled to £1m. The government has decided to bring forward the 'live' date to 31 March 2015, so charities whose accounting years end on or after that date can benefit immediately.

Understanding the new public procurement rules

New Philanthropy Capital has produced a briefing on the Public Contracts Regulations 2015. These regulations brought into effect a European Directive on public procurement, from 26 February. NPC say they will help charities win government contracts but do not go far enough.

Adoption of the new SORPs

The Charities SORPs (Statement of Recommended Practice) were issued in July 2014 after many months of consultation. Click here for more.

VSNW's 2015 Commercial Masterclasses

Voluntary Sector North West are hosting, in association with NCVO and the Cabinet Office, a two day Commercial Masterclass in Manchester on 23 and 24 March 2015.

These practical Masterclasses are designed to share the skills, tools and techniques used by experts in both the private and voluntary sector to win and deliver public service contracts. There will also be an emphasis on the requirements for delivering services as part of a supply chain headed by a commercial sector provider.

If your organisation is looking at bidding for public service contracts, either alone or as part of a consortium, and you feel you need to 'up your game' in terms of business practices, the two-day Commercial Masterclass is for you. See website (www.vsnw.org.uk/events/view/858).

Chester Voluntary Action is also hosting a Masterclass taking place in Chester on 30 and 31 March and you can visit their website for more information. Bookings are limited to one place per organisation. Any questions contact Helen Walker: helen.walker@vsnw.org.uk

Funding News

People's Trust for Endangered Species (PTES) Internships

Max. Value: £ 4,000. Deadline: 25 March 2015. Grants are available to support students and future conservationists to enable them to work full-time, on a specific invertebrate, amphibian, reptile or mammal-related project in the UK. The work must be carried out at either a conservation organisation or within a research group at a university. See website: www.ptes.org

Barclays Credit Union Programme

Barclays has announced the launch of a new £1 million support programme for Credit Unions. This is a collaborative learning programme and will run along two main strands:

- Building capacity of selected credit unions to support Directors, senior staff and other personnel to improve their core skills, capabilities and operational practices
- Improving financial capability and resilience through the provision of financial guidance skills training for credit union staff and volunteers. Credit unions can then target those segments of credit union membership who are struggling with their finances and may be more likely to default or be rejected for lending.

The application deadline for Year 1 will close at 10:00 am on Monday 30 March 2015. See website:

www.transact.org.uk/page.aspx?sitesectionid=244&sitesectiontitle=Community+Finance+Funding

Closing date is 6 April 2015.

The Prince's Countryside Fund – Spring Round Now Open with £800,000 for UK Rural Initiatives

The aim of the funding is to have a long-term positive impact on rural communities, helping those that live and work there to sustain the countryside by tackling key rural issues. Grants of up to £50,000 available to not-for-profit organisations, charities, Social Enterprises, Community Interest Companies, Companies Limited by Guarantee, and Unincorporated Associations. Funding is for a maximum of three years and for a maximum grant of £50,000 per project.

Grants must result in outcomes that directly relate to the Fund's objectives to:

- Improve the viability of British farming targeting the areas of greatest need.
- Improve the sustainability of rural communities targeting the areas of greatest need.

Projects must focus on at least one of the following three key countryside issues:

- Developing Thriving Rural Communities by improving service provision in rural areas. Projects should provide innovative solutions to deliver assets and services that keep rural communities together and develop a more sustainable rural economy, such as empowering communities to provide village services or create business hubs and employment for local people.
- Transforming Rural Livelihoods by supporting rural enterprise and farming businesses. Projects should focus on developing stronger, more sustainable farm and rural enterprises with the aim of halting the decline of the rural economy, for example by providing rural businesses with support and advice or supporting farmer led initiatives.
- Creating the Farmers of the Future by providing training opportunities for young people and the unemployed. Projects should help improve skills and increase opportunities of taking up rural careers, in particular in farming, with the aim of helping people to remain within and contribute to the rural economy, for example, training opportunities and apprenticeship schemes that inspire and enable new entrants to consider a career in farming.

The deadline for applications is 9 April 2015. See website:

Finding Carnegie Playing Fields

The #FieldFinders campaign from The Carnegie UK Trust and Fields in Trust has been launched to help identify over 900 'lost' playing fields that were originally protected as public green spaces by philanthropist Andrew Carnegie's charitable trust between 1927-1935. Because their exact locations were never centrally recorded the sites have been lost and #FieldFinders is hoping the public can help to locate the Carnegie playing fields so that better legal protection can be put in place to protect and restore the spaces. If you locate a Carnegie playing field in your area you could be in with a chance to win one of two £5000 prizes to make improvements to facilities such as children's play areas. Submit images or suggested locations using the dedicated web portal and the specialist Fields in Trust team will then cross reference these with surviving documentation and begin the process of improving legal protection of the site to keep it safe for generations to come. The closing date is the 31st August 2015. See website: www.fieldsintrust.org/Carnegie.aspx

Funding to Support Family Based Projects

The Kelly Family Charitable Trust is open to applications from registered charities for projects that support and encourage the family to work as a cohesive unit in tackling problems that face one or more of its members.

The overall objective is to reinforce the potential benefit and support that family members as a unit can give to each other. The fund also welcomes applications from sports and health-related charities whose activities comply with the above criteria. Grants are of between £1,000 and £5,000, but higher grants may be considered. The next closing date for applications is the 1st September 2015. See website: www.kfct.org.uk/apply.html

Parks for People

Local Authorities as well as not for profit organisations that own public parks and gardens can apply for grants of between £100,000 and £5 million for the regeneration of parks and public gardens (including squares, walks and promenades).
